My heartfelt sympathies go out to the family and friends. May you find some comfort in the promise found in Revelation 21: 3-4 and 1 Thessalonians 4:14. Knowing that there is an opportunity to be reunited with loved ones.

To the love of my life, my soul mate, lover and best friend. We shared a love that will never end. You are the sweetest, most kind, and caring man I've ever known. You are my everything. We loved a life times worth. You said you would die a happy man loving me and for that I'm grateful I'm blessed to have shared a life with you and I am proud of the man you had become. I will miss our talks, cuddles, bible discussions, and the way we could finish each other's sentences. I wish I could hold your hand one more time. I keep listening to the hundreds of love songs you sent me and reading all your beautiful loving quotes. I miss you sweetheart. I keep seeing you everywhere. I miss your smile most of all. I will forever be your love. Your Angel, Minnie Mouse, and Lovebug. Connie

Dad, You never let me forget your love for me, and I don't want you to ever forget my love for you. You were always my hero, the one I looked up to and always wanted to be like. You carried our family through so much over the years, and it's our turn to carry you now. Rest easy Dad, I know you will always be looking down on our family, and you know that I will take care of Mom, Jeffrey, and Gabe for you. I will always be your little girl, your pumpkin, your love bug no matter how old I get. Just know I find solice in knowing that you are with uncle Greg now, and we will all be together again someday.
