We are sorry to learn that Uncle Pat died last week. Although our family relationship was always strained, I do remember sharing some happy days with my cousins, Uncle Pat and Aunt Rene at Grandma Nellie's Slate Lick farm. I recall some laughter and fun while running in the house, hiking the property and swimming in Buffalo Creek together. I can still see Uncle Pat's smile as he remains part of my early childhood memories with the O'Donnell clan. Our sincere condolences to Pat, Colleen, Mike, Aunt Rene and all their descendants for the loss of Uncle Pat. May you all be at peace soon. Sincerely, Dan, Pam and Jane O'Donnell
