Janie was my MHS 1963 classmate who always had a smile for everyone. I remember her majorette days as we cheered on our Greyhounds at football games. She was such a nice girl. Condolences to her family.

I will miss you Jane, we had some fun times together; chatting while hiking, taking trips together, talking about our Grandkids and just enjoying each other. Your strong faith will welcome you into the heavenly place that you earned by your life here on earth. Watch over you family and send them peace and let them know that you are in God's hands now.Dee Casali

Scott, Kristy, Kendall, and Stephen,We are very sorry for your loss of one wonderful mother/grandmother. She was always smiling and we will miss having her around with us for birthdays and holidays as she was part of our whole family, too. We know how much each of you meant to her and she will be watching over you. We are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Love you !!! Denise, Bruce, and Shawn
