You will be missed very deeply. Everyone thought of you as a strong, stern man but you were actually a very kind big teddy bear inside. You were always supportive of me and my family and a wonderful Godfather and role model. My favorite memories are how only you could calm my autistic son with such ease and how you were there for my daughter to walk her down the aisle! Rest in peace and know that there are many people to care and comfort the loved ones you left behind. With much love, your sister-in-law Renee
