My condolences to the family. I did not know Lois for long but met her at work and got to know her. She was a very loving kind person. We would converse about the "C" word (cancer). You see Lois and my mother were battling the same cancer at the same time and she would ask how my mother was doing and I would tell my mom and then mom would also ask how Lois was doing. The last I talked to Lois she was doing good. Unfortunately I lost my mother in June and when I heard about Lois my heart just started hurting all over again. All we can do is keep their fun loving memory's and spirit alive. Again Prays and Condolences to all the family members and friends.
