My condolences to the Happe (Whinery) family and friends. It is a painful thing to lose a precious love one in death, regardless of how long they have lived. Even Jesus wept when Lazarus died (John 11:35) and it pains our loving Heavenly Father, too. He did not purpose his human family to grow old and die but purpose us to live and enjoy life. It is still his purpose (Psalm 37:11, 29). He calls death an enemy that will be removed forever_1 Corinthians 15:26 "the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." He promised to awaken our love ones in the memorial tombs from asleep in death_ Hosea 13:14 "From the power of the Grave I will redeem them; From death I will recover them." Our love one will return to youthfulness_ Job 33:24, 25 "Let his flesh become fresher than in youth; Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor." Then our loving Creator will "satisfy the desire of every living thing" (Psalms 145:16). What a delight it will be to see them again to enjoy life as our Creator purposed! Allow these words to keep comforting all of you.

Uncle Irvin, Mike,Mark,Steve, Tom Dave,Laurie and Kris: We are both so very sorry to hear about your wife and mother. Herk is not in the best of health;he has balance problems, neuropathy in both his feet and hands and with me in a wheelchair it is impossible for both of us to visit you in the chapel. Herk is worried that he might fall. Herk talked to Mike and Tom on Wednesday evening. Aunt Pat was the sweetest lady I ever met and will be sorely missed by her family and friends.
