In loving memory of a wonderful person. The Elm's remember Don's booming laugh at family events; awesome camping trips with the Segers and Marstellers; could fix anything. He will always be with us in spirit.

Don was one of our favorites. He was so much fun to spend time with and always had a great sense of humor. Whenever we saw him he always asked about our family and enjoyed spending time talking to Tom about the Army. His devotion to Claudette was filled with so much love for her. Sadly, he missed her so much and grieved over her every day. The love he had for his family was amazing. The grandchildren loved going camping with him. Prayers and hugs to you all we have lost a special man and he can't ever be replaced. God needed him to keep Claudette company.
