My sincere condolences on your loss. I pray that memories of happier times will see you through your time of grief!\n"God gave us memory so we might enjoy roses in winter.\n"I am a respected researcher of (mostly Mennonite) genealogy, and would like to connect your loved one to her/your family and ancestry, which I am unable to do given the information in her obituary. My on-line project contains over 475,000 individuals, including more than 2,000 Quirings, one of whom is my son-in-law. Please contact me at an appropriate time if you are willing to share/exchange details. Thank you. All information about living individuals is suppressed to protect your/their privacy.

I am so sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort strengthen you for the days ahead. Know that caring thoughts are with you. That \n"He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds, that's found at Psalm 147:3.

Carol was such a sweet person to work with. I always enjoyed hanging out near her desk and catching up on what was happening in the office. She had a great sense of humor, and I can still see her rolling her eyes when anyone asked her for something unreasonable. Rest in peace, dear Carol. You are remembered fondly by your friends at BNY Mellon.

My sincere sympathy and prayers go out to the family. Carol was a very dear friend who will be missed dearly. Remembering our crazy times working at Mellon. Our morning meetings in the cafe to get kick started for the day. We had so many similarities with event dates & names. Trips to Florida and swimming with the manatees. Helping me move, even though it was a job, we made it fun. .Carol is now at peace and with her loved ones who have passed.Until we meet again on the other side. Prayers and Blessings
