Ally Krzyzanowski sent a virtual gift in honor of Linda.

She basically raised me growing up. I would spend most of my young days at her house when my parents would go to work. She had a bunny, and we would sit outside on rainy days on her swinging bench just talking and listening to the rain. She loved the outdoors and birds. May her and her husband rest in peace.

She always brought a smile to our faces. Linda loved her family and extended family dearly and she showed it. The love she shared with her husband, Tom, was the kind you only read about, a true love. She was not only a mother, but a friend to her daughters. Her love for children was undeniable. Babysitter of the family and friends, she touched so many lives. To say she will be sorely missed is an understatement. I know she is in the best part of Heaven now where the flowers are blooming, the hummingbirds are flitting about and the animals are roaming freely. Rest now, sweet Linda, in heavenly peace in the loving arms of your parents and our Lord. Our families will be forever incomplete without you. All our love and prayers to you and to those now left behind. Sue and Yush Krzyzanowski.
