Dolores, you will remain in our hearts forever. You've been part of our Polish family. So cheerful and easy-going, so young at heart that the age difference couldn't stop us to make friends. I'll always remember the time we spent together, those little things like you sitting on the floor in the shopping mall and waiting for me when I'm done with trying on things or those big ones like visiting Niagara Falls. Love U, Joanna

Dolores, you were one of the most caring women I've ever known. When I needed you, you came. You slept on the floor in Mercy Hospital with me and my mother. When my mother needed you, there you were. You are truly an angel in Heaven, Dolores. Until we meet again, 🙏.
