May the words spoken by Jesus bring you a measure of comfort at this most difficult time. "I am mild-tempered...and you will find refreshment for yourselves." (Matthew 11:28, 29). With deepest sympathy, HF (FL)

My condolences are for the Family at this time and it is never easy to lose a loved one in death, but there is Good News! She may be gone now and out of yr sight, but according to God, she will be resurrected back to life by means of a resurrection, that His Son, Jesus Christ will perform in the future. How do we know this to be true? All we have to do, is read what he says to us in John 5:28,29 in which we find him there giving us a future promise he will fulfill, but it doesnt stop there. When she is brought back to life, she will be given the opportunity to live forever on a peaceful earth, like it says in the Bible at Psalm 37:29 which reads: The righteous will possess the earth and they will live forever on it. So one day all of you who loved her and still do, will be able to welcome her back into yr loving arms to be with forever. So if yr wanting to know more about how you can be there to welcome her back, then by all means feel free to visit us at, JW.ORG and there you will be set free from many falsehoods that the Bible doesnt support and can which rob you of ever receiving everlasting life in Gods promised righteous new world and when you learn these truths from the Bible, they will give you many reasons to be joyful and full of happiness.
