Jack, my big brother, we share lots off laugh together, especially when we teas each other about the football games with the Pittsburgh and browns. And the good times we share at Invacare all those years together, all the NASCAR races we share together, all the conversation on the phone, my big brother, you brought me up when I was feeling down, you always had that special way about you to put a smile on my face, you will always be in my heart and in my mind, I'll be waiting to get a call from you everyday. Just like we have being. I'll be talking to you, my brother Jack, RIP my brother, you will always be in me. God bless you my friend.
