Deepest condolences and prayers in this time of loss. May family and friends help and comfort you each day. And may you get comfort from God's inspired words. He has given us the resurrection hope, Acts 24:15. Just as he allowed Jesus to resurrect Lazarus, he can do the same in the last day for Brian.

Donna and Ed and Family, I am so very sorry for your loss. My goodness, I was checking on my Mothers Obit site to look at some photos and came across your son Brian's. I never even checked the names at the funeral home last night as we were there for Moms viewing as well as today and her burial is tomorrow. I can't even imagine how all of you are feeling right now. Many many prayers of peace to you and your family at this time.  Not sure if you remember but we worked together at pnc in the tax department.

"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." My sincere condolences to the Bayrich family and those who knew and loved Brian on the loss of your dear loved one. May these words of Revelation 21:4 from our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalm 83:18) give you a measure of comfort and strength to endure during this time of grief and deep sorrow. The Bible promises at Acts 24:15 of a resurrection, and John 5:28,29 gives us a real hope of being reunited with our dead loved ones. If you need answers to life's big questions such as: Will suffering ever end? And Can the dead really live again? The answer is yes! Visit jw.org and click on Bible teachings. Wishing you peace and comfort.
