I was so sorry to hear about the death of your father, Michael, my Uncle Mike. Uncle Mike was always so full of life and so fun to be around. I remember all the fun times we had, and how much laughter he brought to our family. You couldn't help but be happy and laugh when you were around him. When I think of Uncle Mike, I see him laughing and waving his cinnamon broom. His 50th birthday party was the the most fun I have ever had at a birthday, with his stories! I loved stopping over and telling him about what was going on with my life. He always gave me the best advice, and I'll really miss our talks. Love you, Uncle Mike. I know how devastating it is to lose your father. I know that it seems impossible right now, but things will get better. You'll feel a little better with each passing week. Just keep putting one foot in front of the other. I am thinking and praying for you every day. With Deepest Sympathy, Raeann
