I would like to offer my condolences in the loss of Angela. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ's] voice and come out"! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that "he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to "weep with those who weep," all earth's inhabitants will "rejoice with those who rejoice."—Rom. 12:15

Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there; I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there; I did not die. So sorry for your family's loss. Angie was a such a kind hearted woman, she will be greatly missed.
