Mrs. Pettway posted:

I am sorry for your loss. May your family receive an abundance of comfort from God and be sheltered and guided as you navigate through this difficult time. His comfort is so powerful that we are able to be strengthened by it and effectively comfort others based on the care and concern we bountifully receive. (2 Corinthians 1:3-5)

To Shirley's family, I extend my heartfelt sympathy. Shirley has been my hairdresser for over 40 years. Such a great lady and friend. She will be missed terribly. She is with her beloved husband, Joe. This will make her fulfilled again. Love and prayers to all, Pat Kaczmarek
