So many memories of Uncle Art, and all of the stories we grew up listening to, are all I can think of today. I just know that my dad Tex was the first one to meet him at the gates. That thought makes me smile. I will miss you Uncle Art -- your "favorite" niece, Kathleen. Wait...did he tell all of us we were his favorite? Jeff, Michael, Cheryl - you have my sympathy, and I know we will get together and remember those stories, and laugh again. God Bless Uncle Art.
