I am so sorry about your loss. Death is always difficult to deal with, no matter the circumstances. Even though I did not know Cathy, I try my best to encourage the bereaved with a comforting thought from God's word the bible. Notice please these encouraging words from the bible book of Isaiah 26:9. It reads in part, \"Your dead will live...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life.\" The bible here reminds us that many now asleep in death will soon live again. This gives us all the opportunity to be with our loved ones in the future. I hope this brief thought from the bible provides some comfort. More information can be found at www.jw.org.

So deeply saddened by the death of my cousin, an amazing person. She was the most remarkable, positive, cheerful, courageous, loving woman I know. Truly a role model. May you all find comfort knowing that she is with her Dad, finally healed and happy. So wish I could be there to celebrate her life. She will never be forgotten. Praying for you Aunt Al, Bob, Larry, Judy and family. Love you all. May God rest her soul.
