Dear Ron, It is with great pain in our heart that we see our loved ones pass away; the fact that they had a blessed long life like your dad does not really change our pain about the loss. It helped me to remember that death is not a final point in one's existence, but rather a transition from the world of things into the world of spirit. Your dad is in a good place now, and he lives on in your gratefulness and in all he taught and gave you. I wish you and your family strength and God's help for the coming time of mourning.
