I'm so sad to learn of Ernie's death only now, eight years later. She was a significant influence when I was living near her in Whitehall. I was an avid tennis player when she began to play in the 1970s. So many memories of her whether on the tennis court or listening to Neil Diamond's music. I think of her so often and always remember her on St Francis Day, her birthday. May the cross rise up to meet you
The sun was always at her back....Until we meet again, I pray you are in Tge palm of God's hand.
Much love,Dr Susan Schaming Odegard

I just read about Mrs. Steele in the Almanac. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. She was my student teacher at St. Bernard back in 2001. She taught me so much about teaching and life. She will always hold a special place in my heart.
