My heart is heavy for the pain all you are going through right now. Prayers are being lifted that you all feel the comforting arms of God holding and strengthening you during this time. May the memories of Catherine bring her closer and help you still feel her presence. Knowing her daughter Jill, I see and hear the impact Catherine made as a wonderful mother-gentle and caring. I see the importance family means and how you all have come together in Catherine's care and honoring her life. May you see clearly how her life so well live and her love for family now lives on in unique ways in each of you. God bless.

I am so sorry to hear of another loss of our Lebanon Manor family. I fondly remember your mother when I was sent down for a loaf of bread or milk from your dad's bus. God Bless your family.

Although I have never met Catherine I feel like I know her through her daughter Jill. Jill and I have shared moments we've had with our Mothers and we have both laughed and cried. Certain that we will share many more for Catherine's memory will always remain and may the family left behind be blessed with peace in their hearts.
