Rob will be missed, but never forgotten. He was a true friend before he became my brother-in-law. He had a kind, compassionate heart and gave unconditional love to me and everyone he met. He was always there and willing to help when you needed it. There are so many memories but the ones that seem to stick out the most were the little things, like.... sopping up water with me when a hot water tank broke in an apartment I had, talking me through driving directions when I was lost in Pittsburgh (before GPS's), and hanging out watching movies together when I was recovering from a broken collarbone. He always had a way to make you laugh when you wanted to cry. He was a great brother-in-law and uncle. We'll forever cherish our memories together from family visits... the nightly card game matches to amusement park adventures and my kids memories of storytime with Uncle Rob. (Dr. Seuss's Fox in Sock's book will never be read the same again). We'll always remember our last trip together to Universal Studios in December. Thank you for introducing and developing the love of Harry Potter to my girls and I will always have the image of you laughing and feeling like a kid with my my kids in Diagon Alley. Rest in Peace dear Rob, we love you so much.

It's been a very sad time since I heard about Rob's passing. Rob was one of the most caring and inclusive people I've ever known. Always friendly and always had a positive outlook. We hung out recently and it reminded me of the time, on my wedding day ON NEW YEAR'S EVE 2005, he was one of the last people helping us clean up late into the night after our reception. Sharon and I will never forget that gracious gesture. He also provided me with a job hanging blinds while I was unemployed years ago that helped me get through some difficult financial times, and for which I am forever grateful. He was a great friend and so much fun to hang out with on so many occasions there is no way I could list them all. And he was like that with everyone! Rest in Peace Robbie K, you will be missed by many.
