All my sympathy to the Moebs family. I knew Marge quite well. She and I helped organize the church library, back in the mid 70's. We catalogued a lot of the books, took turns checking the books in when they were returned. She also, was instrumental in helping to set up a children's library. The Sunday school classes came into the library for 10 minutes, heard a bible story and checked out a book. She and I became members of the Stephan Ministry in 1993. Marge was such a wonderful, gentle soul, always a smile on her face and a very strong faith. I lived her. She was an angel then and will now be with the angels above.
