Jennifer Lynn Sasek

MAR 14, 1975 - NOV 24, 2024

Jennifer Sasek, a beacon of love and passion, passed away surrounded by the family who was the center of her world on Sunday, November 24, 2024. She was a devoted mother who poured her boundless love into her boys, guiding them with a gentle hand and a resilient spirit.

Jennifer's passion was palpable in every endeavor she undertook. Whether meticulously tracing her family's roots through genealogy or infusing her cooking with the warmth of her heart, she did everything with a full commitment. Her zest for life led her to cherish moments spent at their family camp, where she could often be found with a fishing rod in hand, surrounded by the serenity of nature.

A great cook with a greater heart, Jennifer was adored by all who knew her. Her infectious enthusiasm and unwavering dedication to her loved ones will be deeply missed, yet her legacy of love and passion will continue to inspire those fortunate enough to have felt her touch.

Jennifer is survived by her husband, Jeffrey Sasek; children Wyatt, Ethan, and Travis Sasek; parents Timothy and Barbara Rodgers.

Visitation will be held on Friday, November 29, 2024 from 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm and 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm at the Jefferson Memorial Funeral Home, 301 Curry Hollow Road, Pittsburgh, 15236. A funeral service will be held on Saturday, November 30 at 2:00 pm in the funeral home's chapel.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Western Pennsylvania School for Blind Children, 201 N Bellefield Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15213.

Online condolences may be shared at www.jeffersonmemorial.com.

I was VERY shocked and saddened by the passing of Jennifer. She was a very strong woman, a dedicated mother and wife and a good person. Extending my sympathy to her family and friends and all of us who were lucky enough to know her. Eternal rest grant unto Jennifer, Lord and may perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul rest in peace.

I had the privilege of meeting Jennifer thru her husband Jeff (co-worker, boss & above all, a good friend) He always spoke so kindly & lovingly about her. They had something very special! Jeff, my heart breaks for you & the boys. Heaven sure did get an angel. She will be looking over & protecting you. Hold all memories close at heart, they will help you get thru hard times. Prayers to all of Jennifer's family.

Jennifer was one of kindest and strongest women I have ever had the honor to know. She hosted many jewelry parties with me in her home and we quickly became friends. My prayers are with her family during this difficult time.

I first met Jen at camp in Cook Forest in the early 2000's. I was a newbie to an on-going family tradition that had and still has its fair share of strange traditions. Jen greeted me with a smile and filled me in on some of the things that happen. Since that first time, we gathered at that same camp every year and Jen was there with her family, caring not only for her own, but for everyone else there too. Always a smile on her face and glad to be with those she cared about. We will miss her greatly. Her spirit will live on and her kindness will not be forgotten. With love...

Jenn was the embodiment of being a mother. I so vividly remember her interacting with her boys. She had such love and such strength. I can still see her at Ethan's birthday party and how she smiled and loved on him and him smiling back. I'll never forget. Until we meet again ❤️
