Sue was my daughter's neighbor and always looked after her and her fur babies. She was such a kind and beautiful person. Her and Dave are the best neighbors ever. Now Sue can say "hi" and spend Christmas with my husband up in heaven who passed away last year at this time.

Susan was a kind hearted person. I met her at church and she always had a smile on her face. She enjoyed shopping with her husband Dave and I enjoyed seeing them both at the trader jack's in Heidelberg. Susan will be sadly missed by all, and we must hold onto gods promise that we will see her again. I thank god for her life and all the memories she made here on earth. My prayers are with her family as they mourn her passing 🙏
