I've known Mrs. Grzes as long as I've known Timmy. Since the 4th grade 1970. While in high school, I had a job as a line cook at Johnny Garneau's Golden Spike on RT. 51 at the Cloverleaf. Mr. and Mrs Grzes would come in on the bar side once a month after seeing a movie. Tom who ran the bar would tell me they were in and I'd always give Ed a bigger portion of roast beef on his pretzel bun, and Sylvia double French fries. I always thought it was so nice they still kept a "date night" for themselves, even as their other kids had grown up and left home. So nice
