Thank you much to whoever put the flags up in the neighborhood for Bob's day of celebrating his life. This is one of the best ways to honor him we could have ever seen by the neighborhood. Thank you soooooo much! What a gift to remember him in this way. Thomas Armitage

I didn't think a 1976 Econoline raised roof camper could do donuts in a snowy parking lot, that was only one of the countless times he taught me valuable life lessons. Miss ya Dad!

Many years ago, Jan, Teresa, Mom and I traveled to New York for a bowling tournament and stopped to spend a couple days with Carolyn and Bob. Well, Bob wanted to whip my butt at pool so we went to a local establishment and he proceeded to do just that. Kicked my butt. It was a very fun time. Bob, you will be missed by all.
