I'm reminded of all the times as a kid I spent with her and her family growing up. They always provided a comforting home, and it was always a delight to see her during family gatherings or during the Dillsburg Farmers Fair. I only wish I had been able to see her one last time, but at least the last memories I have of her are good ones. She was always considerate and kind, and whenever there was something wrong I felt I could tell her. The world feels a little less happy with her loss.
