My grandmother was such a special woman. As kids, Lauren and I would visit her condo in South Florida often. She would eagerly await us, standing at the end of the hall before we even finished climbing the stairs to the third floor. Lauren and I would run down that carpet runway into her arms for the world's biggest hug. The genuine happiness these moments gave me are indescribable. A feeling I will never forget, but wish I could experience just one more time. Grammy, thank you for so many wonderful years of love, joy, and laughter. You will be loved by us forever.
