I will cherish my friendship with Sherry Stiver forever. She was a precious friend, strong, principled, and loving. My late husband and I were dear friends with Jack and Sherry, sharing many good times, delicious meals, and great fun. Though we will surely miss her, those of us who loved her can rest in the certainty that she is resting in the promises of her Savior and Lord. Thank you, Father, for the gift of Sherry Stiver.

There are so many fond memories of her in our many years together in Bible study. She had a beautiful faith, never forgot a birthday, and was always the first one to send a touching sentiment if there was a difficult time in a friend's life. She was a dear friend of the heart.
