Michael D. Giordano

OCT 15, 1951 - MAY 18, 2025

Michael D. "Mike" Giordano, 73, of Finleyville, PA, passed away peacefully on May 18, 2025. Born on October 15, 1951 to the late Michael and Leona Giordano.

Mike lived his life to the fullest with few regrets. He was a proud graduate of CCAC South and Robert Morris University, achieving a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. He utilized his higher education toward a 40 year career within the retail grocery industry, where he worked in various capacities.

Mike is survived by his sister Michele (Peter) Fisher, daughter Jacquelyn Giordano, son Michael P. (Juliette) Giordano, grandchildren Rosalie, Violet and Michael J. Giordano, nieces and nephews Jamie (Sue) Slancauskas, Dana (Ryan) Hansen, Dino Ciorra, as well as many great nieces, great nephews, and cousins.

Mike's wishes:

Please don't be sad. Have a cold one to the sounds of Mike's favorite lyric from Blood Sweat & Tears' song "And When I Die" - "All I ask of living is to have no chains on me. All I ask of dying is to go naturally."

Love and peace to all.

Friends and family will be received from 2-4pm and 6-8pm on Thursday May 22, 2025 At Jefferson Memorial Funeral Home, Inc., 301 Curry Hollow Rd. Pittsburgh, PA 15236.

A Funeral Service will be held at 10am on Friday May 23rd in the funeral home chapel.

I knew Mike back in the mid-70s. He was always fun to go out with. Loved to go to the clubs around Pittsburgh and catch the latest bands. I remember him bartending at the R-House near South Park. We were good friends up until I moved from Pittsburgh in 1978.

Uncle Mike made the BEST pumpkin pies! He also called me "Crissy." LOL- I have only known a couple people in my life who call(ed) me Crissy. He was a self-proclaimed grump, but I liked him even though I have only known him a short time! RIP, Uncle Mike! I will take care of Buddy for you!
