Denny and Family,Ivan and I met Marietta about 7-8 years ago on the Montour Trail. Denny introduced us. I already knew Denny from working at Brentwood Bank. The four of us started walking together and we all became instant friends. We would meet and walk almost every day for at least three miles. While walking Mare and I were never at a loss for words. We talked about our families, solved the world's problems and everything else in between. We are heartbroken over the loss of our friend and will miss her dearly. She will be forever in our hearts. We love you, Mare. Until we meet again. God speed!Love,Georgeann & Ivan
